Jealous, Slow-Witted, Impotent Strongman

BACKGROUND

I am Stud Strong, aged 36, the circus strong man. I am an incredible mass of brawn, muscle, tattoos and piercings. Strength is my strong suit. Brains are not, and it has to be said that I am a bit simple. I have a very jealous nature, and an explosive temper. I was brought up in the circus and the fortune teller, Ma Potter, is my mother. I am married to the beautiful bare back rider Gigi Giddiup. I am also the circus handy man, helping to set up the show in new towns. My immense strength is very helpful when hammering in stakes for the circus tent.

I recently took part in Gemini TV's televised competition "Britain's Strongest Man". Unfortunately I came last.

ABOUT THE VICTIM - JACQUES, 28,

Despite his French sounding name, the murdered man was a cockney lad from London. A pupil at the East End School of Performing Arts, he was at Slaughter's Circus for his summer placement. During this time he was to spend a week with each of the main circus acts, learning their arts. This week he had been learning clowning skills with Coco and Ermintrude. Each night he has been going into the circus ring acting as assistant to both knife thrower Jade Edge and Illusionist Madam Titian.
